CASTO WELCOMES BURGERS, DOGS AND FRIES TO BROAD & HIGH
Café Lola owners open another restaurant to take the place of Original Soup Man

Columbus, OH – CASTO, one of the country's leading real estate organizations, announced today that Kevin and Lori Ames, owners and operators of Café Lola, will open their third restaurant, Burgers, Dogs and Fries (BDF) at the vibrant corner of Broad and High Streets, two of which are at CASTO's Broad & High project. Burgers, Dogs and Fries is set to open the week of October 4th.

BDF will offer an array of dressed-up or plain burgers, dogs and fries. There are a variety of toppings from which to choose, including the Sloppy Dog; A hot dog with chili, grilled onions and peppers, lettuce, tomato and pickles!

"Even in today's economic climate, we are confident in CASTO's capabilities which is what lead us to opening a second restaurant at the same location," said Lori Ames, Burgers, Dogs and Fries Owner. "We believe there's a demand for this concept, where people can eat out for lunch for under six bucks," she added.

Burgers, Dogs and Fries will be open Monday through Friday, 10:30am-4pm.
